

Client Waiver and Acknowledgment of Declining DDoS Protection

Service Provider: Foxbright Solutions, LLC DBA Foxbright

1. Acknowledgment of Risk

By signing this waiver, the client acknowledges that they have chosen to decline Distributed Denial of Service (DDoS) protection through Foxbright for their website(s). The client understands that without this protection, the website may be vulnerable to DDoS attacks, which can disrupt access to the site and impair its functionality.

2. Risk of DDoS Attacks

A DDoS attack is a malicious attempt to overwhelm the website / server with traffic, causing it to become slow, unresponsive, or completely unavailable. By declining DDoS protection through Foxbright, the client understands that their website may be an easier target for such attacks and that these attacks can result in significant downtime and loss of service.

3. Limited Liability of Foxbright

In the event of a DDoS attack, the client acknowledges and agrees that Foxbright will not be responsible for providing support or assistance in mitigating or restoring the website until the attack subsides. Foxbright will not be liable for any loss of business, revenue, data, or reputation that may result from a DDoS attack.

4. Client Responsibility

The client understands that it is their responsibility to take any additional measures they deem necessary to protect their website from DDoS attacks, including seeking third-party solutions if they wish to enhance the security of their site.

We do not plan to seek any third-party solution

If the client declines the (free or paid) Cloudflare DDoS protection, Foxbright will invoice an additional $200/annually to manage and isolate client from clients utilizing DDoS protection.

We have DDoS Protection through _____

If DDoS protection is provided by a 3rd party, client agrees to maintain protection and notify Foxbright immediately if protection is discontinued.

5. Agreement

By signing this waiver, the client confirms that they have read, understood, and agreed to the terms outlined in this document. The client voluntarily chooses to decline DDoS protection through Foxbright and assumes all risks and responsibilities associated with this decision.
